Marketing Intelligence & Investments

1Future.international GmbH offers a 360-degree approach in the support of acquisitions of foreign and domestic companies. Clients can be international investors who plan to participate in or take over companies in Germany, Austria and Switzerland (DACH-region), as well as investors from the DACH-region, who are considering an international entrepreneurial commitment. Experience creates competence, knowledge and safety.

This is the basis for all of 1Future.international's activities as well as the distinctive network across all sectors and industrial or economic areas. Through rapid, focused and precise consulting and placement we provide our clients with an edge over national and international competition.

Our Offer

Opportunities, risks and solutions will be pointed out and implemented responsibly. 1Future.international GmbH delivers not only a sound assessment of companies and transactions but also consulting for operative measures, accompanying communicative activities and – if so requested – HR consultancy.
